Consider the MPA degree if a career in any of the following interests you:

- Service delivery or management in a local, state or federal agency
- Policy making, implementation and evaluation
- Nonprofit organizations and non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
- Community planning and development
- Public safety or court administration
- Children and social service programs
- Public health and environmental management
- Educational or arts administration

The MPA program requires 39 credit hours.

CORE COURSES (27 credit hours)

PAD 600 Foundations of Public Administration
PAD 601 Human Resource Management
PAD 602 Organizational Behavior and Theory
PAD 603 Public Policy
PAD 611 Budgeting Technology and Applications
PAD 612 Administrative Law
PAD 615 Research Methods
PAD 616 Data Analysis
PAD 793 Capstone

CONCENTRATION AREAS (12-13 hours)

- Nonprofit Management
- Homeland Security and Emergency Management
- Metropolitan Governance
- General Public Management
- Public Leadership (Coming in Fall 2014)

For more information:
http://www.mpa.nku.edu
mpa@nku.edu
859-572-5326